

LaGrange Day Camp

The LaGrange Recreation Department offers a Summer Day Camp program at Freedom Park for children entering grades K through 7. Activities include arts enrichment, Red Cross certified swim instruction, boating, music, games, entertainment and special camp events. Camp staff includes trained counselors, experienced assistant directors and director. Many staff members are school teachers. Camp registration includes 5 lunches per 2 week session (W, F- pizza, 2nd Thu – an alternate lunch). School bus transportation is available with centralized stops at: Overlook School, Apple Valley Shopping Center and Noxon School. Individual drop-off at Freedom Park is between 8:45 and 9:00 am; pickup is promptly at 3:00 pm. Camp registration is initially open to residents of the Town of LaGrange. After June 8th, if space permits, camp registration opens up to our 6 neighboring towns (Beekman, E. Fishkill, Pleasant Valley, Town of Poughkeepsie, Union Vale, and Wappingers). Registration is limited. In order to register, your child must have current immunization records, health insurance information, emergency contact phone numbers, and proof of residency ID.
